

CONTENTS

|       |  |    |
|-------|--|----|
|       | Acknowledgements   | ix |
|       | Forewordby Ted Bishop  | i  |
|       | Introductionby Andrew Gow and Julie Rak  | 9  |
| ONE   | Fifth Avenue Pilgrims Amid the GoatsThe Sportsman , February 1930, 63 and 102 | 37 |
| TWO   | This Guiding GameThe Sportsman , April 1930, 58–59 and 78                     | 45 |
| THREE | The Last Great Buffalo DriveThe Sportsman , June 1930, 75, 86 and 88          | 53 |
| FOUR  | “William, Prepare My Barth”The Sportsman , July 1930, 55 and 78               | 61 |
| FIVE  | Us Winter SportsThe Sportsman , January 1931, 44–45                           | 69 |
| SIX   | RamsThe Sportsman , April 1931, 67–68   | 77 |
| SEVEN | Tepee TalesThe Sportsman , September 1931, 52–54 and 58                       | 85 |

|           |   |     |
|-----------|---|-----|
| EIGHT     | An Early Ski Attempt on Mt. PtarmiganCanadian Alpine Journal , vol. 21 (1932), 135-137 | 95  |
| NINE      | Pipestone Letters No. 1Hunting and Fishing , September 1932, 16                        | 101 |
| TEN       | An' All We Do Is HuntNational Sportsman , March 1933, 10-11                            | 107 |
| ELEVEN    | The Latest From PipestoneHunting and Fishing , February 1934, 11                       | 113 |
| TWELVE    | Dried Spinach or Moose Steak?Hunting and Fishing , June 1935, 11                       | 119 |
| THIRTEEN  | Tex Reads His PermitHunting and Fishing , August 1935, 13                              | 125 |
| FOURTEEN  | The Guide Knows EverythingNational Sportsman , June 1936, 14-15                        | 131 |
| FIFTEEN   | Tex: Gentleman's GentlemanHunting and Fishing , August 1936, 14                        | 137 |
| SIXTEEN   | It's Good to Be AliveNational Sportsman , September 1936, 16-17                        | 143 |
| SEVENTEEN | Tex Takes a TrophyHunting and Fishing , October 1936, 7                                | 151 |
| EIGHTEEN  | Sawback Cleans a LakerHunting and Fishing , December 1936, 12                          | 157 |

|              |   |     |
|--------------|---|-----|
| NINETEEN     | Sawback Changes His MindHunting and Fishing , April 1937, 9                        | 163 |
| TWENTY       | Tex Tangles With HorribilisHunting and Fishing , May 1937, 15 and 46               | 169 |
| TWENTY-ONE   | Navigatin' for NamaycushNational Sportsman , May 1937, 14-15                       | 175 |
| TWENTY-TWO   | What's in a Name?National Sportsman , February 1938, 6-7 and 21                    | 183 |
| TWENTY-THREE | Sawback and the Sporting PropositionNational Sportsman , May 1938, 14 and 26       | 191 |
| TWENTY-FOUR  | The Wild Goose Chaseby 'Ramon Chesson'National Sportsman , October 1938, 10-11 | 199 |
| TWENTY-FIVE  | It's a Woman's WorldNational Sportsman , October 1938, 13 and 26                   | 207 |
| APPENDIX A   | Tex Vernon-WoodRecollections by his grandson, John R. Gow                                 | 215 |
| APPENDIX B   | A Gift from Grandad Vernon-WoodRecounted by his grandson, Harry W. Gow                    | 221 |
|              | Index   | 223 |

