

★ ★ ★ INDEX ★ ★ ★

Figures, illustrations, and tables used in the text are denoted by the page number in italics.

9/11/2001. See September 11 (2001)

24/7 news cycle effect on 9/11 reportage, 80

Alabama claims

and annexation, 10

American journalism and apathy towards Canada, 106 compromise of principles, 77 coverage of Canada-U.S. relations predictions for, 103-106

and effects of sensationalism, 101-102 ideological polarization of, 102-103 ideological shift during Cold War era, 33

in new millennium, 77 and partisanship of public, 102

reversion to 19th Cent. mockery, 90

during Vietnam War era, 46

annexation

American argument for, 9

media debate over, 8

and reciprocity measure, 18

as settlement for Alabama claims, 10

anti-Americanism

in Canadian media, 19, 87

and Carolyn Parrish (M.P.), 86

and Françoise Ducros (M.P.), 86

Goldberg "Bomb Canada" editorial (National Review), 86 and Montreal Daily Star, 19

during reciprocity debates in Canada, 26 and Wall Street Journal, 43

anti-Canadianism

and Barack Obama, 104

correlation to policy differences, 105

after invasion of Iraq, 94-95

Macleans magazine, 90

New Yorker magazine, 95

and reciprocity measure, 18

anti-terrorism measures

Canadian response to, 84

Arthur, Prince of Connaught, 2

Avro Arrow project, 37, 38, 38

Ballard, Walter (writer)

analysis of reciprocity treaties, 22

Beauchamp "Champ" Clark, James (U.S. Congress)

anti-Canadian remarks, 18

and reciprocity measure, 17

Bennet, William (U.S. Congress)

annexation resolution, 18

Bomarc missiles issue, 37

"Bomb Canada" editorial, 85, 85, 86

Borden, Prime Minister Sir Robert and "Americanization" of Canada, 26 and annexation resolution, 18

and Chicago Tribune, 27

and reciprocity "filibuster," 25

British Empire

political authority over Canada, 1 and ties to Dominion, 18

British North America Act, 1

Buchanan, Pat

"Soviet Canuckistan" comment, 85

Bush, President George W.

and allied support for war, 82

"friendly fire" incident (2002), 84

perceived snub of Canada, 80

state visit to Canada (2004), 91-92

cable news outlets

use of controversy, 91

Camp David

Pearson/Johnson incident (1965), 47-48

Canada

and allegiance to U.S., 94, 94 (see also Martin, Prime Minister Paul) anti-war stance on Iraq, 88-89 changes in perception of, 78 decline in coverage during 19th Cent., 5

as enemy of U.S., 78 and fears of annexation, 8

first challenge to sovereignty of, 6 (see also Fenian Brotherhood)

as haven for terrorists, 81 lingering frustrations with, 95 and reciprocity issues, 25

shift in values, 89

stereotyping of, 5, 8, 106

and diminishment, 89-90

- Canada-bashing. See anti-Canadianism
- Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement (1988), 30. See also NAFTA Mulroney's influence on, 76
- Canada-U.S. relations and communism, 35
 and diverging values, 100 early Trudeau era (1968-70), 59 and economic integration, 31, 105
 "family dynamic" model of, 86
 "friendly fire" incident (2002), 83
 late Trudeau era (1980-84), 72
 during Martin-Harper campaign (2005), 93
 mid Trudeau era (1973-78), 66-67
 at time of Canadian Centennial, 52 and trade vs. public opinion, 98 Tucker Carlson comments, 93-94
 during Vietnam War era, 48-51
 and world wars, 31
- Canadian Centennial (1967), 52
- Canadian Cold War defence policies
 criticism of, 40
- Canadian foreign policy
 Vietnam
 and Chicago Tribune, 51, 51
- Canadian nuclear defence policy
 and Chicago Tribune, 41
 and Los Angeles Times, 41, 44
 and New York Times, 42
 and Pearson, Prime Minister Lester, 42
 and Washington Post, 41, 43
- Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), 81
- Canadianism and Diefenbaker, 42
 and Walz, Jay (journalist), 52
- Carlson, Tucker (journalist), 93-94
- Carter, President Jimmy, 66
- Cellucci, Paul (U.S. Ambassador-Canada), 81
- Chandler, Senator Zachariah (Michigan)
 and annexation, 10
- Chicago Tribune*
 and Canada's potential as a nation, 1
 and regularity of reporting during 19th Cent., 4
 during Vietnam War era, 46, 47
- Chretien, Prime Minister Jean
 "friendly fire" incident (2002), 84
 response to 9/11, 79
 stance on Iraq, 87
 and "War on Terror," 82

- Clark, Prime Minister Joe
 - election of, 67
 - praise for handling Tehran hostage-taking, 68, 69, 69-70
- Cold War era
 - and American journalism, 32-33
- communism
 - and bilateral relations, 31
- Congressional Record*, 18
- conservatism
 - difference between U.S. and Canada, 75-76
 - vs. liberalism in media, 103
- Constitution of Canada
 - patriation of, 72
- constitutional monarchy
 - benefits and detriments of, 3-4
- Cross, James (British trade commissioner)
 - kidnapping of, 59-60
- Cuba-Canada relations
 - Trudeau era, 65-66
- Cuban embargo by U.S.
 - Canadian stance over, 34
- Cuban missile crisis (Oct. 1962)
 - Canadian response, 39
- cultural saturation
 - in 21st Cent., 64
 - of Canada, 64

- Diefenbaker, Prime Minister John D.
 - and Canadian nationalism, 33
 - and Canadian nuclear defence policy, 42
 - and Canadianism, 42
 - criticism for defence policy of, 40-41
- doll-stomping incident
 - Parrish, Carolyn (M.P.), 86
- "Dominion" of Canada, 2
- draft-dodgers
 - and Christian Science Monitor, 50
 - numbers of, 50
- Ducros, Françoise (M.P.)
 - anti-American comments, 86

- Eisenhower, President Dwight D., 33
- Elizabeth II, Queen, 72
- exodus of immigrants to U.S.
 - Montreal Witness* (defunct), 12

- favourability ratings, 99(5.1), 99(5.2)
 - of America, 98-99
 - America-France, 97
 - of Canada, 97-98

- Fenian Brotherhood
 - and political effects in Canada, 8
 - reportage of raids, 6
 - “The Fenian War,” 7
- Fielding, William Stevens (M.P.)
 - and Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 13
- filibustering, 25. See also Reciprocity Treaty (1911)
- Fish, Hamilton (U.S. Secretary of State), 9
- FLQ (Front de Libération du Québec), 59. See also War Measures Act
 - kidnappings, 59–60
- Ford, President Gerald, 66
- Fox News Channel
 - anti-Canadianism, 100
- Freedman, Max (journalist)
 - and Canadian nuclear defence policy, 41–42
- free-grant districts (land), 12
- free-trade agreements. See reciprocity; reciprocity measure; Reciprocity Treaty (1911)
- “friendly fire” incident (2002)
 - as symbol of Canada-U.S. relations, 83–84

- Governor General of Canada
 - first to be named, 2

- habeas corpus
 - suspension of, 60
- Harper, Prime Minister Stephen
 - and ideological change, 95
- Hill, James J. (businessman)
 - on reciprocity, 17
- hostage-taking
 - U.S. Embassy in Iran, 68–70

- immigration
 - to U.S. during 19th Cent., 11–12
- import/export trade, 14. See also Reciprocity Treaty (1911)
- independence of Canada
 - from British Empire, 1
- International Boundary
 - decline in border economies, 82
 - security of post-9/11, 81
- invasion of Iraq
 - and Canada’s response, 87–88

- Kennedy, President John F.
 - and cross-border relations, 41
 - major issues faced, 34
- “Kingdom of Canada,” 1–2

- Laporte, Pierre (MNA)
kidnapping of, 60
- Laurier, Prime Minister Sir Wilfrid accusations of "breaking" Dominion, 19
and reciprocity measure, 25
and Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 13
- Los Angeles Times*
response to Victoria Times article, 24
- Macdonald, Prime Minister Sir John A.
and Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 13
- Macleans* magazine
anti-Canadianism, 90
- manifest destiny, 9
- Manley, John, (M.P.)
border issues, 81-82
- Mao Tse-tung, 65
- Martin, Prime Minister Paul
anti-American sentiment, 93
State-side visit, 93
- Medill, Joseph (editor)
and "manifest destiny" letter, 9
- military of Canada founding of, 3
- Montreal Witness* (defunct)
exodus of immigrants to U.S., 12
- Morse, Senator Wayne L. (Oregon), 40
- Mulroney, Prime Minister Brian
Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement (1988), 76
and cross-border relations, 75-76
- National Energy Program (NEP), 71-73
- National Review Online*
Goldberg "Bomb Canada" editorial, 85, 85, 86
- nationalism in Canada
late Trudeau era (1980-84), 71
mid Trudeau era (1973-78), 65
- NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization)
Canadian membership in, 58 and Trudeau's foreign policy, 58
- new millennium
as turning point for journalism, 77
- New Republic*
bilateral relationship, 33
- New York Times*
and Canada's potential as a nation, 1
- news dispatch typical of era, 4
and regularity of reporting during 19th Cent., 4
- New Yorker* magazine
anti-Canadianism, 95

- news reportage styles. See also American journalism 19th Cent. vs. modern, 5 at time of Dominion, 4
- Nixon, President Richard Milhous
 and cross-border relations, 62, 63
 import surcharge, 62, 64
 “Nixon Shock,” 61–62
- NORAD (North American Aerospace Defense Command) and Canadian sovereignty, 39 establishment of, 36
- Norman, Herbert E. (Cdn. Ambassador-Egypt)
 suicide and effect of, 33
- North American Air Defense Command (NORAD). See NORAD
- Northern Pacific Railroad, 17
- nuclear arms debate
 Canada/U.S., 40–43
- nuclear defence capabilities
 Canada/U.S. integration of, 36–37
 Canadians approval of, 37 policy paper disclosure affair (1963), 40
- Obama, Senator Barack
 anti-Canadian sentiments, 104
- October Crisis (1970)
 response to, 60–61
- O’Neill, General John (U.S. Cavalry), 7
- Oregon boundary dispute, 87
- Oregonian*
 rejection of reciprocity, 30
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 34
- Parrish, Carolyn (M.P.)
 anti-American comments, 86
- Paterson, William (M.P.)
 and Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 13
- Pearson, Prime Minister Lester and the “60 days of decision,” 45
 and Canadian nuclear defence policy, 42
 and New York Times, 45
 Vietnam peace talks, 47–48, 50
- “pop” politics (Trudeau era), 56. See also Trudeaumania
- protectionism, 17, 20, 104. See also Reciprocity Treaty (1911)
- Rawlins, General John A. (U.S. Secretary of War), 9
- Raymond, Henry J. (U.S. Congress)
 resolution against Canadian independence (1867), 2
- Reagan, President Ronald and Trudeau’s economic policies, 72
- reciprocal free lists, 15

- reciprocity
 - Canadian advantage, 5
 - and Canadian debates over, 25
 - Los Angeles Times*, 19, 21–23
 - New York Times*, 20
 - threat to citrus industry, 21
- reciprocity measure, 16–17, 20
 - and House of Commons, 20
 - passage of, 23
 - rejection of and media response, 27–28, 29, 29–30, 30
 - stalemate of passage, 17
 - and treaties with European countries, 20
- Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 12–13, 15, 16, 16
 - and annexation, 14
 - and Boston Globe, 14
 - and Chicago Tribune, 15, 17
 - correlation to nuclear arms debate, 43
 - response to, 14
 - and Washington Post, 14–16
- republicanism, 3
- secession
 - threats of by provinces, 8–9
- sensationalism
 - in American media, 101
 - effect on journalism, 101–102
- September 11 (2001), 79
 - and 24/7 news cycle, 80
 - Canada's response, 79–80
 - criticism of Canada for, 80–81
 - and national security issues, 82
- Sifton, Sir Clifford
 - and opposition to Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 14
- Taft, President William
 - annexation resolution, 18
 - reciprocity measure, 16–17
 - and 2nd passage of, 20
 - and Reciprocity Treaty (1911), 13, 15
- terrorism
 - Canada as haven for, 100–101
 - and Canadian border issue, 81–82
 - post-9/11 war on, 82
- This Hour Has 22 Minutes*
 - doll-stomping incident, 86
- Thoreau, Henry David
 - impression of Canada, 1
- Toronto Globe*
 - and "manifest destiny" letter, 9

- trade policies of Canada
 - and communist bloc countries, 35–36
- Treaty of Washington (1871), 12
- Trudeau, Margaret (nee Sinclair), 67
- Trudeau, Prime Minister Pierre Elliott
 - background, 53
 - comparison to Kennedys, 56
 - criticism of, 64
 - disfavour of U.S., 57
 - failures of, 73
 - initial impressions, 53–55
 - legacy of, 73
 - Liberal party leadership, 54
 - nationalistic economic policies, 71
 - socialist leanings, 65, 65
 - Trudeaumania, 52, 55–56
 - waning popularity of, 67
- Turner, Prime Minister John, 74

- United Empire Loyalists
 - and failure of reciprocity, 30

- Victoria, Queen, 2
- Victoria Times*
 - American chastisement of, 23
- Vietnam War
 - American journalism during, 46–47
 - Canada/U.S. relations during, 48–51
 - Canadian policies on, 45–46
- Voltaire (François-Marie Arouet), 1

- Wall Street Journal*
 - and claims of anti-Americanism, 43
 - reciprocation of, 44
- Walz, Jay (journalist)
 - and “Canadianism,” 52
- War Measures Act* (Canada)
 - invocation of, 60
 - U.S. equivalent, 60
- War of Independence, 30
- “War on Terrorism”
 - Canada’s early role in, 83
 - “friendly fire” incident (2002), 83
- Weekly Standard*
 - stereotyping of Canada, 90