

FIGURES

FIGURE 3.1	Gitksan territory map	29
FIGURE 3.2	Gitksan land: Gitwingak from across the Skeena River	30
FIGURE 3.3	A traditional fishing site on the Skeena River above the village of Ansbayawx (Kispiox), along the Tenas Hill trail	31
FIGURE 3.4	Block diagram of an idealized Gitksan landscape	33
FIGURE 3.5	Seven Sisters with hill in foreground from Sedan Creek	34
FIGURE 3.6	Tax a lake: Upper Watson Lake with Mt. Sir Robert in the background	35
FIGURE 3.7	“High banks” are a type of feature named by both Gitksan and Athapaskan speakers	37
FIGURE 3.8	Avalanche track on Seven Sisters viewed from Coyote Creek moraine, July 1995	37
FIGURE 3.9	Skeena river in flood: rough rapids where the river flows over a bedrock obstruction, described by Dinim Gyet as lax kelt aks “hilly water”	38
FIGURE 3.10	Confluence of Kispiox and Skeena Rivers from Gwin ‘Oop fish camp: wilnawaadihl aks ‘where the waters get to know each other’	38
FIGURE 3.11	Detailed river terms, of importance to those who navigate on rivers and net fish	39
FIGURE 4.1	Map of Witsuwit’en territory	51
FIGURE 4.2	Bulkley Valley landscape	52
FIGURE 4.3	Idealized Witsuwit’en Landscape, Bulkley Valley area	55
FIGURE 4.4	Idealized Witsuwit’en Landscape, Nadina area	56
FIGURE 4.5	View up Peter Alec Creek toward Nēdin’a, Nadina Mountain, May 1989	58
FIGURE 4.6	Marsh along Peter Alec Creek, May 1988	58
FIGURE 4.7	Fishing at Moricetown Canyon on Widzin Kwikh, the Bulkley River	59
FIGURE 4.8	Sdic’odinkhlh Bin, Blue Lake, from the lake shore	59
FIGURE 4.9	Hagwilget Canyon, diyik - at fall low water	60
FIGURE 5.1	Location of traditional berry sites in relation to the main twentieth century Gitksan and Witsuwit’en villages	74
FIGURE 5.2	Seasonal round of the Gitksan and Witsuwit’en	80
FIGURE 5.3	A portion of Dinim Gyet’s territory showing resource sites	85
FIGURE 5.4	Map of Shandilla area	86
FIGURE 5.5A	Comparison of ca. 1899 and 2001 photos of Shandilla area from Gitwingak: view of Shandilla area, circa 1899	88
FIGURE 5.5B	View of Shandilla area, 2001	88

FIGURE 6.1	Generalized map of Kaska territory	95
FIGURE 6.2	Liard Canyon between Watson Lake and Lower Post	98
FIGURE 6.3	Lookout: old trail with blazes	100
FIGURE 6.4	Lookout: hunting camp	101
FIGURE 6.5	Lookout: lake with fringing swamp meadow tütsel	101
FIGURE 6.6	“Rock mountain” tsē dzéḥ	103
FIGURE 6.7	“Grass mountain” (grass-topped mountain) bés	103
FIGURE 6.8	High bank tl’étāgi along the Dease River by the confluence of French River	104
FIGURE 7.1	Map of Gwich’in Settlement Region in the Mackenzie and Peel River drainages	109
FIGURE 7.2	View of Peel River and low Arctic landscape looking downstream from Shiltee Rock (Shıldii)	110
FIGURE 7.3	Cluster of sites in the Road River area (northern Yukon) along several intersecting travel paths: the river, trapline trails, and portage trail along Three Cabin Creek	112
FIGURE 7.4	James Creek area in the Richardson Mountains, July 2000	113
FIGURE 7.5	The summer fish camp and winter trapping camp at Road River, July 1999	113
FIGURE 7.6	The winter trapping camp at Road River, February 2000	114
FIGURE 7.7	Overflow on river ice, a challenge of winter travel	116
FIGURE 7.8	West wind with typical lenticular clouds at Road River, February 2000	116
FIGURE 8.1	William Teya pulling coney from net set at eddy below Shiltee Rock, summer 1999	123
FIGURE 8.2	Summer fishing sites (eddies) on the Mackenzie River near Tsiighehtchic, Northwest Territories	124
FIGURE 8.3	Fish drying at the fishing site, Diighe ‘tr’aajil	125
FIGURE 8.4	Rolling slopes of Richardson Mountains in late August, 2000, as the first of the Porcupine Caribou Herd began moving into the area	129
FIGURE 9.1	Map of general locations of Dene groups discussed in Chapter 9	136
FIGURE 9.2	Map of Witsuwit’en lands showing clan territories and major trails	139
FIGURE 9.3	Tsía, Russell Bay, a productive area for summer lake charr fishing on Sahtú, Great Bear Lake	142
FIGURE 9.4	Boreal woodland caribou hunted by George Kenny and Simon Neyelle along the Bear River, July 2006 and brought to the Deline Plants for Life camp to share	143
FIGURE 9.5	Dall sheep along Dempster Highway in the area of Engineer Creek	149
FIGURE 10.1	Totem pole of Antk’ulilbixsxw (the late Mary Johnson) in Ansbayaxw	155