Acknowledgements xi
Introduction
Alvin Finkel, Sarah Carter, and Peter Fortna xi

Part One
Frameworks for Western Canadian History
1 Critical History in Western Canada 1900–2000 • 3
Gerald Friesen

2 Vernacular Currents in Western Canadian Historiography: The Passion and Prose of Katherine Hughes, F.G. Roe, and Roy Ito • 13
Lyte Dick

3 Cree Intellectual Traditions in History • 47
Winona Wheeler

Part Two
The Aboriginal West
4 Visualizing Space, Race, and History in the North: Photographic Narratives of the Athabasca-Mackenzie River Basin • 65
Matt Dyce and James Opp

5 The Kaleidoscope of Madness: Perceptions of Insanity in British Columbia Aboriginal Populations, 1872–1950 • 94
Kathryn McKay

6 Space, Temporality, History: Encountering Hauntings in Vancouver’s Downtown Eastside • 113
Amber Dean
7 The Expectations of a Queen: Identity and Race Politics in the Calgary Stampede • 133
SUSAN L. JOUDREY

Part Three
The Workers’ West

8 Capitalist Development, Forms of Labour, and Class Formation in Prairie Canada • 159
JEFFERY TAYLOR

9 Two Wests, One-and-a-Half Paradigms, and, Perhaps, Beyond • 181
ELIZABETH JAMESON

EYSYLT W. JONES

11 Winnipeg’s Moment: The Winnipeg Postal Strike of 1919 • 227
JOHN WILLIS

Part Four
Viewing the West from the Margins

12 "Our Negro Citizens": An Example of Everyday Citizenship Practices • 253
DAN CUI AND JENNIFER R. KELLY

13 A Queer-Eye View of the Prairies: Reorienting Western Canadian Histories • 278
VALERIE J. KORINEK

14 Human Rights Law and Sexual Discrimination in British Columbia, 1953–84 • 297
DOMINIQUE CLÉMENT
Part Five

Cultural Portrayals of the West

15 W.L. Morton, Margaret Laurence, and the Writing of Manitoba • 329
  ROBERT WARDHAUGH

16 The Banff Photographic Exchange: Albums, Youth, Skiing, and Memory Making in the 1920s • 349
  LAUREN WHEELER

17 Eric Harvie: Without and Within
  Robert Kroetsch’s Alibi • 375
  ROBYN READ

18 "It’s a Landmark in the Community":
  The Conservation of Historic Places in Saskatchewan, 1911–2009 • 397
  BRUCE DAWSON

Contributors 417