Maps and Figures

Map 3.1 Location of the Naskapi village of Kawawachikamach, northern Québec 60

Map 7.1 Approximate ranges of the Cape Bathurst, Bluenose West, Bluenose East, and Porcupine caribou herds 171

Map 7.2 Comprehensive land claims in the Northwest Territories 174

Map 8.1 A map of the fishing and harvesting sites visited during fieldwork, conducted in 2012 193

Figure 2.1 Lillian Wuttunee cooking a fish (n.d.) 49

Figure 3.1 Sandra Guanish and Ann Joseph talking about medicinal plants 73

Figure 3.2 Sandra Guanish collecting Labrador tea 76

Figure 3.3 Ruby Nattawappio crushing Labrador tea 77

Figure 3.4 Kathleen Tooma and Ann Joseph preparing medicines 78

Figure 6.1 Example of one of the maps based on Eleanor Moberly’s interview 146

Figure 6.2 Hanson and Pederson families water activities, Buffalo Narrows 149

Figure 6.3 Mary and John Hanson with caribou on lake 150

Figure 6.4 Drying meat on the land 151

Figure 6.5 Cecile and Alfred Morin family drying meat today 151

Figure 6.6 Cecile Morin preparing meat for a cultural gathering 151

Figure 6.7 Eleanor Moberly at camp with grandchildren 152

Figure 6.8 Eleanor Moberly plucking birds 153

Figure 6.9 Mary Hanson tanning hide with a young boy 154

Figure 6.10 Eleanor Moberly tanning a moose hide, Turnor Lake 154

Figure 6.11 Cecile Morin smoking a hide 155

Figure 6.12 Beadwork and moccassins made by Albertine Herman, La Loche 156
Figure 6.13  A class from the Cecile and Alfred Morin Métis Culture Camp for youth  161

Figure 6.14  The Morin family on the land  163

Figure 6.15  The Morin family at Potato Point family gravesite  163

Figure 7.1  Dene woman hunting  179